GSJC 499 Internship Scholarship Application

To receive an internship scholarship you MUST
1. Be registered for a JL MC, ADVRT or P R 499-1 (your required internship) in spring 2016, summer 2016 or fall 2016.
2. Not be receiving any other internship awards (i.e. Scripps Howard Internship Grant).
3. Be classified as a junior or senior with a major in advertising, journalism and mass communication or public relations.
4. Be making satisfactory progress towards graduation.
5. Complete a 300-500 word essay on the importance of the particular internship you have chosen.
6. You must answer each question on this application to be eligible for a scholarship award.
7. Agree to release your information and photo for the Greenlee School to use for promotion of the scholarship program and for the purpose of notifying donors about the use of their scholarship funding.

Awards may or may not be made due to budgets and eligibility. Student must be registered for ADVRT, JL MC or P R 499-1 during the semester in which the scholarship is issued. Preference will be given to students who prove a financial hardship caused by the location or the cost of living during the internship. Preference will not be given to students based on their financial need as determined by the FASFA.
